

It's Official - FMF is the Title Sponsor for the 2016 Glen Helen National!

In exciting news, FMF has signed on as the title sponsor of the Glen Helen National for the second year in a row! The Southern California based company is well known in the off-road scene and has been a longtime supporter of the Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Nationals.

This year's FMF Glen Helen National will be a very special event as it marks 50 years of American Motocross! Celebratory plans are being formulated for the opening ceremonies that will include tributes and comments by prominent dignitaries such as Torsten Hallman and Roger DeCoster.

Kicking off the Summer racing season, the FMF Glen Helen National is one event you will not want to miss! All of your favorite AMA stars will be on the gate, Glen Helen Raceway will be groomed and spruced to the max, and the entire weekend will be a fantastic experience for racers and spectators! Make your plans now to be at the track for the May 28th National weekend.
