Exciting New Product Sponsors Join Glen Helen!

Glen Helen is proud to announce Motosport.com and A'ME Grips as our newest product sponsors! As part of this new sponsorship, both sponsors will be at the Yamaha Quad X Series Final on September 27th. The class champions and winners will be awarded Motosport.com gift cards and A'ME Grips special quad grips. In addition, A'ME Grips will also be at the JBC 24 Hour Endurance Race on October 12th, rewarding winners with MX grips.

Motosport.com, located in Oregon, is an enormous mail distributor with an impressive stock and inventory catering specifically to the motocross/ATV community. Staying true to their unique focus on off-roading parts and accessories, they pride themselves in hiring staff that is as dedicated to riding as the community they serve. Visit their website <http://www.motosport.com/> and experience the difference, knowing they have the expertise to find you the exact part you're looking for.

Glen Helen is thrilled to have A'ME Grips as our other new sponsor. The Nevada based company specializes in their custom sport grips for BMX, ATV's with twist or thumb throttles, and motorcycles. Their extensive product line features heated grips for when it gets cold, as well as a wide array of different styles to match your individual riding experience. Check out their website <http://www.amegrips.com/> to see all of their unique grips and accessories.
